

Vicky Devine is one of the leading female Trance DJs to break out of the UK.... with her successful career taking her all over the world and which led to her becoming the weekly main room resident at one of the most popular and well known nights in Ibiza - Judgement Sundays. Vicky Devine's success as a DJ is growing year on year gaining amazing recognition for her talent and ability behind the decks as well as receiving increasing worldwide support from the biggest artists in the industry for her productions.

The History...

Vicky has been involved in music in some capacity throughout most of her life. Reaching Grade 6 in Piano, playing classical guitar and being a member of a singing group throughout her school life, she was quickly enticed into the dance music world and has worked within the industry ever since!!! Beginning as a club reviewer and interviewer for M8, Dream and Eternity magazines, She then went on to dance on stage and work in various promotional roles for a number of UK based events. There was always a DJ inside though and she was soon behind the decks spending hours after college learning how to mix. This coupled with her passion for music, endless enthusiasm and perseverance has helped build her career and has made her one of the most established female DJ's and producers in the current dance music scene. As a result Vicky has gone on to wow fans in the UK, and indeed around the world with a reputation built on her uplifting yet driving trance sets, although versatile Vicky is just as recognised for her house sets as well. She's played at numerous nights in the UK including Gatecrasher, The Gallery, Pams House, Slinky (Westfest Festival), Escape (Swansea), Passion, Tranzaction and on a worldwide level including on the SLINKY Asia tour in Singapore and Kuala Lumpur, the SMIRNOFF EXPERIENCE tour in India and at clubs throughout Europe, Canada, South America, Mexico, Indonesia, Malaysia, Dubai, Australia and New Zealand to name but a few.

Ibiza...

Over the years Vicky has been a regular guest at many clubs and bars in Ibiza and this eventually led to her gaining a weekly main room residency at Judge Jules's massive JUDGEMENT SUNDAYS night at Eden (2005 - Present). Playing both the warm up and close down sets at the busiest night in San Antonio has meant her playing regularly alongside many of the leading names in today's trance scene, as well as establishing her name as one of the favourite Ibiza residents both with the DJ's and clubbers alike. Not forgetting Vicky's other Ibiza summer residency at the most successful all female DJ event to date - Charlys Angelz - at which Vicky has played each and every one since its launch! The night, which Vicky also promotes, has subsequently toured the length and breadth of the UK as well as at nightclubs around the world. Vicky has also been a regular feature at the massive superclub "BCM" on the neighboring Balearic island of Majorca, playing at a number of their large events including the Radio One Weekenders as well as on a weekly basis on the main upper floor throughout the summer months (2003 - 2009). Her dedication to the scene and her performances worldwide has not gone un-noticed, and in 2008 Vicky was voted 5th in the Best Residents Category in the well respected Trance Awards Poll powered by Trackitdown.net.

Production...

On the production front Vicky has also seen much success. She had early productions as part of collaborations released on Infectious Distribution (Sweet Asylum), Solar Records (Angelz) and F Active Music (Fearing Nothing), before moving onto working on solo productions and developing her own sound. She has gone on to have releases on Spinnin, Fraction Records, Recoverworld (Flux Delux), Insatiable, and Drizzly Records with corresponding remixes from some of the scenes most recognizable names and emerging stars. Her tracks have also been supported by some of trance's biggest hitters including Tiesto, Paul Van Dyk, Gareth Emery, Ernesto vs Bastian, Aly and Fila, Christopher Laurence and Dave Pearce, have had amazing reviews in top music magazines IDJ, Mixmag and M8, plays on some of the biggest Radio Shows and Podcasts and have featured on numerous mix compilations. Never one to rest on her laurels, Vicky's studio itinerary for 2010 is already jam packed with further exciting releases and collaborations already planned.

Radio...

Radio has played a massive part in Vicky's career to date and is something she was involved with from a very early stage. Having provided Ibiza reports and interviews for MOS Radio, Galaxy FM, Kiss 100 FM and Bournemouth's Fire 107.6FM, and having also hosted her own show on Ibiza dance music station Holiday FM, she has also recently launched her own radio show and podcast - Savagely Devine - in conjunction with Australia's number one female DJ Amber Savage. The show is broadcast worldwide bi-monthly on Slinky.FM and is available to subscribe to and download as a podcast. She has also had several guest mixes and interview's on other high profile radio shows including Judge Jules's BBC Radio One Show, Woody Van Eyden and Alex Morph's Heavens Gate Show, Kiss FM, Eddie Halliwell's BBC Radio One Show, and on Judge Jules's Global Warm Up show, not to mention on several International Web Based Stations to include ETN, AH.FM, DI:FM, Sense and MOS. In addition Vicky has been involved in television work with Rapture TV, MOS TV, Living TV and with an Australian production which included her interviewing DJ Tiesto at Ibiza's Cream Closing Party at Amnesia. More recently she has become the main presenter for WTFI which involves her interviewing DJ's and producing content for DVD's and online video clips.

Some quotes from fellow DJs...

Vicky is one of the unsung heroes of trance in the UK & Ibiza
 - Judge Jules - Aug 2008 on his Radio 1 show

I have been playing in Ibiza for years now at this stage and I have been with Judgement Sundays for the last four years. Each time Vicky Devine plays before I know I can arrive at the venue five minutes before my set knowing that she has done the perfect job. Vicky plays a perfect mix of quality grooves with euphoric breakdowns, none of which conflicts with what I want to do as a DJ.

Some quotes from fellow DJs...

Vicky has been our Judgement Sundays Ibiza resident for four years, and never fails to ignite the crowd. Her music style and persona behind the decks are second to none.

- Judge Jules

Vicky Devine is definitely one of the reasons why I enjoy DJing at Judgement Sundays in Ibiza so much, it's hard to find a DJ who can do a proper warm up set without taking anything away from the music I want to play in a club. I have stayed around to hear her closing set and it has just as much impact as her opening sets. If I was a promoter I would want her involved in my night!
